

Beach Breaks for the whole family!

As Britain has so many beaches that can be enjoyed all year round, you needn't travel far to find one that you will fall in love with – and with hundreds of people around the country preparing for the Great British Beach Clean this weekend (15th – 18th September), there hasn't been a better time to take advantage of the coast and get away.

Perfect for people and pets alike, beaches are great for every member of the family. From Norfolk to Northumberland, cottages.com has a selection of properties that are perfect for a break with the kids and dog in tow. What's more, no beach break is complete without a sandcastle, so the travel brand has created a handy guide on how to fine-tune your fort whilst on holiday!

For more information, to book and indulge in even more reasons to fall in love with Britain's beaches, visit <http://www.cottages.com/inspire-and-explore/iloveyouk/sandcastle-building-guide> or call 0345 268 5900.

Overstrand Beach, Norfolk

If peace and quiet is what you want from a beach break, this one is perfect for getting away from it all letting every member of the family take a stretch and get some well needed fresh air. Open to dogs from the 1st October and close to the coastal resort of Cromer, why not pay a visit to Norfolk's Overstrand Beach.
