

Honeymoon in Derbyshire

*Explore the stunning Peak District with cottages.com

As the home to the stunning Peak District and a whole host of stately homes and castles, Derbyshire is an ideal location for a honeymoon. With countryside that stretches as far as the eye can see, to the legend of Robin Hood, there's so much for newlyweds to discover in this picturesque county. What's more, with countless outdoor trails, lovers of the outdoors will be in their element here.

Here are ten reasons why Derbyshire is the perfect honeymoon break:

1. Offering breath-taking views and countless opportunities to be at one with nature, the Peak District will leave you speechless.
2. Home to Chatsworth House, you can explore the stunning gardens and arts on show.
3. Enter the UK's largest cave entrance and discover the unusual rock formations and cave network.
4. If you've got a head for heights, travel by cable car and discover the Peak District from above by visiting The Heights of Abraham.
5. Immerse yourself in history by visiting one of the many stately homes and castles in the region. From Hardwick Hall to Bolsover Castle, there's so much to discover.
6. If you're in search for something more adventurous, Gulliver's Kingdom is the perfect day out, offering adrenaline and views of the countryside.
7. Home to the Pennine Way, spend a day exploring the region on foot.
8. For a truly exciting day out, follow in the footsteps of Robin Hood and venture to legendary Sherwood Forest.
9. For those looking for views to enjoy with your loved one, Ladybower Reservoir in the Upper Derwent Valley is perfect and provides a picturesque setting a stroll.
10. With numerous properties on offer in its Romantic Collection, honeymooners will struggle to choose just one perfect stay with cottages.com!
