

Norfolk Property Owners Celebrate National Tourism Award

More than 120 properties across East Anglia achieve the coveted Customer Choice Award

Property owners in Norfolk have cause for celebration after achieving a record number of national tourism awards.

More than 120 properties across East Anglia, including 96 in Norfolk and 33 in Suffolk, have achieved the highly coveted Customer Choice Award, which recognise the very best holiday properties across the UK based on customer reviews.

Awarded by cottages.com, the UK's biggest holiday cottage website, more than one in 10 properties (11% of the cottages.com portfolio in Norfolk and Suffolk) received the accolade this summer. The region's best performing property was revealed as being The Sidings in Sheringham (property reference W43781), an award winner for the second consecutive year, based on total weeks booked in 2016.

Victoria Schofield, cottages.com area manager for Norfolk, said: "Our property owners do a fantastic job ensuring a welcome arrival for visitors to the region and providing the highest quality holiday accommodation. It's an absolute pleasure to present so many local owners with our Customer Choice Award this year, recognising the very best holiday properties based on excellent customer feedback."

cottages.com Customer Choice Awards are given to property owners who score 9.5 or above (out of 10) in five or more customer reviews submitted via Reevoo, the feedback portal on its website. This year's awards were based on scores from January to December 2016.

For the ultimate quality assurance, holidaymakers can search the cottages.com website using a Customer Choice Award filter.
