

The Perfect Pairing for cottages.com and The Lobster Pot

Leading self-catering holiday company, cottages.com has today announced the latest addition to its portfolio in the North East.

The Lobster Pot (UK3082) in Amble, Northumberland is located close to the Harbour Village which is home to the new Amble Pods and the Northumberland Seafood Centre and located opposite the town's highly acclaimed ice-cream parlour. Offering a comfortable base to explore the surrounding areas including Amble, Warkworth and Alnwick, it is in an ideal location for up to four guests, with one pet welcome.

The signing comes as the local area experiences an influx of interest from visitors following the regeneration of the harbour, and is one of many signings that cottages.com has secured since the opening of the Harbour Village by the Amble Development Trust in 2015.

The Lobster Pot joins The Harbour Holm (CC317009), Little Woodlands (UK3014), Harbour House (29623) and Number 36 (UK3096), which are all are within walking distance from the amenities available at the harbour side.

Wendy Jennings, Business Development Manager for cottages.com, said: "We are delighted that The Lobster Pot has joined us as the latest addition to cottages.com, and look forward to working with them to welcome more visitors to the area!"

"There has never been a better time to let a holiday property in Amble – with so much to offer, the quaint seaside location offers a welcome retreat from busy day-to-day life."
